

Summer Teacher Residency Professional Development

In addition to demonstrations, studio visits, working sessions, and critiques, participants will engage in various professional development experiences with our local partners.

Cleveland Museum of Art (CMA): Museum Exploration

Dive into artworks and educator resources at the Cleveland Museum of Art through a variety of modes of exploration. Then, explore the museum on a tour and activity in the contemporary art wing. Finally, explore on your own during an optional self-guided tour to round off the afternoon.

Contemporary Practices: Third Fridays in Cleveland

Part of an artist's practice is networking with colleagues and galleries. Third Fridays is a local tradition where galleries across the city schedule opening receptions of new exhibitions, artists talks, and other creative events. Residents will have the chance to explore these venues and connect with other artists, all while boosting their roster of creative contemporaries to bring back to the classroom.

Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA): Museum Practices

Explore working with museums as practicing artists and teachers, including available resources and how to promote your own work to larger institutes.

Contemporary Practices: Navigating the Art World

Join us for a lecture and discussion on how to navigate the contemporary art world, including goals and outcomes of the residency, networking, marketing, and different resources available to you as both practicing and teaching artists.

Pricing Your Artwork

Learn about pricing your artwork, establishing a rate for your labor, and negotiating your fees.

Roundtable Discussion: Classroom Strategies + Planning

Connect with your cohort of educators during this in-depth discussion. We will share lesson plans, teaching strategies, and talk about the challenges and successes faced in the classroom. Subjects will include critiques, student participation, teaching contemporary artists, and educator resources.
